

The Western School Division is committed to providing in its schools a safe, secure environment that supports the intellectual and emotional growth of all its students and staff. Maintaining that environment is a priority in the Division.

To resolve situations in which th-Should any student, staff, or parent of the Western School Division educational cor